

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

The conclusion of the 1965 C.S.S.R.A. Regatta brings with it the closing out of my term as President.

The opportunity of competing as an oarsman in the School Boy Regatta was never mine to enjoy, however I am indeed proud to have had the privilege of serving this Association as President.

Before stepping out, I would like to thank those men listed inside this program for making this regatta the success that it is.

The success of this regatta as in other years, is the result of their untiring efforts, and through this, our Regatta has become one of the finest in North America.

Thank you for being with us in the grandstand to-day, we feel sure that you will enjoy watching the sport that builds boys into men

JAY STOCKS,
President,
Canadian Secondary Schools Rowing Association.
